MANDATORY CONDITION: COMMISSION OF A CRIME – OBTAIN CREDIT CARD NUMBER LARCENY; CONSPIRE/AID/ABET LARCENY GREATER THAN $200; TWO COUNTS OF ENTER/SET IN MOTION VEHICLE.

On September 30, 2017, Liam Antinori was arrested and charged with the above referenced criminal conduct by the Spotsylvania County Sheriff's Department. According to the police report, on September 30, 2017, Deputy Pearce with the Spotsylvania County Sheriff's Department responded to a call regarding individuals breaking into vehicles in a local community. Deputy Pearce was patrolling the neighborhood looking for suspicious activity when he spotted a vehicle parked on the side of the road with three occupants. When he approached the vehicle, Mr. Antinori was sitting in the driver's seat. The undersigned notes a review of the police report did not indicate the deputy observed Mr. Antinori operating the vehicle at any point. Upon investigation, and through interviews with residents, deputies learned the defendant and two other individuals were walking throughout the neighborhood breaking into vehicles and stealing contents of the vehicles. The items taken from the vehicles included, but were not limited to, money and credit cards. Mr. Antinori was taken into custody as a result of the offense.

This matter is scheduled to be heard before the Spotsylvania County General District Court on November 9, 2017. The defendant was released from the custody of the Rappahannock Regional Jail on October 3, 2017.
